

Position No.
2004-PO1

U.S. PROBATION OFFICER
Memphis and/or Jackson, Tennessee
Starting salary: $46,927

Duties include conducting presentence investigations of defendants convicted in Federal Court, as well as supervising offenders in the community. College degree (Master's degree preferred) and one to three years specialized experience required (progressively responsible experience in such fields as probation, pretrial services, parole, corrections, criminal investigations or substance addiction treatment). Fluency in Spanish is desirable.

Hazardous duty position. Applicant must be under age 37 at time of appointment, pass an extensive background investigation, submit to drug testing by urinalysis, and meet medical/fitness standards. In addition, the incumbent will be subject to random drug screening and updated background investigations. Application and announcement may be obtained by accessing www.tnwd.uscourts.gov, and must be returned to the U.S. Probation Office, 167 N. Main, Rm 234, Memphis, TN 38103. Application deadline: Monday, October 25, 2004, 5:00 p.m. More than one position may be filled from this announcement.