The U.S. Probation Office, Western District of Tennessee, is accepting applications for the position of Probation Receptionist at our location in Jackson, TN. The preferred candidate will have a demonstrated history of being a team player who is self-motivated and detail oriented with excellent interpersonal communications skills, problem-solving skills and a strong work ethic. Starting salary will be commensurate with work experience, education, prior/present pay history and previous federal court experience.

JOB SUMMARY:

The Probation Receptionist position contributes to the smooth and efficient operation of the office by properly handling and referring telephone calls and visitors, preparing correspondence and forms, submitting required documentation to various entities, conducting online record checks, scanning and maintaining electronic and paper files, and processing mail in and out of the office. Probation Receptionists often represent the first impression of the agency to visitors and callers and set the tone for future interactions with the office. Errors in judgment or discretion can lead to incorrect or improper information being disseminated. Responding to competing priorities, maintaining confidentiality, and handling visitors and callers tactfully is essential to providing quality service in a courteous and efficient manner.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES:

- Perform receptionist duties by greeting visitors/callers in person and by telephone, answering routine questions, and directing visitors/callers to the appropriate person or department.

- Inform offenders/defendants reporting for supervision or investigation on procedures for completing appropriate forms and authorizations. Advise offenders/defendants reporting for the first time regarding officer assignment and basic initial procedures.
- May prepare or edit petitions, orders, letters, memoranda, appointment notices, and other correspondence, including typing, keyboarding, formatting, proofreading, and generating documents from templates and notes. May edit presentence reports produced by officers. Enter chronological entries in offender electronic database as needed.
- Enter investigative, supervision and other statistical data in database.
- Create new investigative files at the direction of probation officers and maintain files up-to-date and in accordance with established office policies and procedures.
- As the office goes to a paperless environment, scan documents and upload to proper location within appropriate database.
- Electronically submit appropriate documents to the Bureau of Prisons and Sentencing Commission, at the direction of probation officers.
- May assist with conducting online criminal record checks through local or national law enforcement systems.
- Perform other related duties as required.

REQUIRED COMPETENCIES

Probation and Law Enforcement: The Probation Receptionist will be exposed to a variety of confidential documents and sources of information. An ability to maintain absolute discretion with confidential documents and information is essential. The incumbent must have skill in properly referring/routing telephone calls, visitors, and hand-delivered documents/materials; skill in filing and knowledge of filing requirements; skill in spelling, grammar, and proofreading. The incumbent must have the ability to follow detailed instructions and multitask; skill in organizing their own work; and ability to apply policies, procedures, practices, and guidelines.

Judgment and Ethics: Knowledge of and compliance with the Code of Conduct for Judicial Employees and court confidentiality requirements. The incumbent must demonstrate the ability to consistently demonstrate sound ethics and judgment.
