

Crosstown High School Courthouse Visit

Crosstown High School's Government Class visited the District Court on November 8, 2023. Students observed court proceedings before U.S. District Judge John T. Fowlkes, Jr. and U.S. Magistrate Judge Charmiane G. Claxton. The class also heard from representatives from the United States Attorney's Office, Federal Public Defender's Office, Probation and Pretrial Services, and the United States Marshals Service.

First Assistant U.S. Attorney Reagan Fondren (above) and Assistant U.S. Attorney Greg Allen (below) talk to the students about the role of the United State Attorney's Office in the administration of justice.

Assistant Federal Public Defender Mary Jermann-Robinson engages the students and reminds them every person accused of a crime is considered innocent until proven guilty.

U.S. Marshal Tyreece Miller shows students some of the protective gear used by Deputy U.S. Marshals.
