SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION NO. 1

Now that you are ready to begin to deliberate there is one final instruction that I must give you.

If you should desire to communicate with me at any time, please write down your message or question and pass the note to the Court Security Officer who will bring it to my attention. I will then respond as promptly as possible after conferring with counsel, either in writing or by having you returned to the courtroom so that I can address you orally. Please understand that I may only answer questions about the law and I cannot answer questions about the evidence. I caution you, however, with regard to any message or question you might send, that you should not tell me your numerical division at the time. That is, at no time should you tell me the numerical result of a vote of the jury. You can only tell me that you have reached a verdict or you have not reached a verdict.

You may now proceed with your deliberations.
