

Central Baptist School Courthouse Visit

On February 29, 2024, upper class students from Central Baptist School visited the Courthouse in Memphis. The group observed court proceedings before U.S. District Judge Mark S. Norris and U.S. District Judge Thomas L. Parker. Attorneys from each court proceeding spoke with the students about each hearing and their journeys to becoming a lawyer. Students also heard from representatives from the U.S. Attorney's Office, Federal Public Defender's Office, Probation & Pretrial Services Office, and the Court's Staff Attorney. The visit ended with a presentation and tour by the U.S. Marshal Service.
