

Jackson State returns

Students from Jackson State Community College Criminal Justice Program, who visited the Courthouse in March, came back May 16th to observe a sentencing that was continued during the first visit. Defense attorney, Terrell Tooten, and Assistant U.S. Attorney, Christie Hopper, met with the group after the hearing to discuss the relationship between Plaintiff and Defense Counsel and how that process is carried out during the course of a case.